Press Release

pbb provides a c. £100 million facility to Helical Bar to finance a London office portfolio and a shopping centre and retail park in Corby Town Centre

Munich/London, 2 January 2014 - pbb Deutsche Pfandbriefbank provided an approx. £100 million facility to subsidiaries of Helical Bar plc refinancing its recent acquisition of three London office buildings (Maple House, London EC1, 15-25 Artillery Lane, London E1 and New Loom House, London E1) and a shopping centre and retail park in Corby acquired in 2011. Parts of the facility will be used for the refurbishment of Maple House and an extension to the shopping centre. The business plan for the portfolio is to enhance the rental income of the properties through active asset management. The transaction, which was announced by Helical Bar plc on December 24, closed on December 19 2013.

Charles Balch, Head of Real Estate Finance International Clients, UK and CEE at pbb Deutsche Pfandbriefbank, commented: "pbb Deutsche Pfandbriefbank is very pleased to have supported Helical Bar through this tailored financing. It shows pbb's commitment to satisfying the demand of key clients for complicated financings involving opportunistic acquisitions."

Tim Murphy, Finance Director at Helical Bar plc, commented: "Helical has a very long standing relationship with the team at Deutsche Pfandbriefbank and is pleased to continue this relationship with a five year facility, which provides funding for our planned works at Corby Town Centre and Maple House."
