pbb Deutsche Pfandbriefbank provides €10 million financing for “Victor Dupoys” public hospital in Paris

Munich / Paris, 13 February 2013 - pbb Deutsche Pfandbriefbank provided the “Centre Hospitalier Victor Dupoys” public hospital, Paris, with a long-term loan of € 10 million. The transaction closed in December 2012.

The proceeds will be used to finance the reconstruction and refurbishment of the hospital. The works will enable the hospital to comply with the highest healthcare standards, provide better and faster services to its patients and facilitate future medical developments.

The “Centre Hospitalier Victor Dupoys” is located in the North West suburbs of Paris. It has a total capacity of nearly 1,000 beds. Each year 32,700 patients are hospitalized and almost 75,000 receive emergency treatment. Almost 3,300 babies are born in the hospital each year.

Jean Christophe, Global Head of Public Investment Origination at pbb Deutsche Pfandbriefbank, said: “pbb Deutsche Pfandbriefbank has built up extensive experience of public investment funding for the health sector. In 2012, 14 French hospitals chose pbb as a new financing partner. We are proud to have been able to support them and the Centre Hospitalier Victor Dupoys with this latest transaction.”
